WE NOMINATE

Lester Vernon Chandler, a long-visioned economist and a dedicated Princetonian of some 16 years' standing, who — together with four other able and equally concerned Princetonians — has accepted the heavy responsibility of attempting to produce on painfully short notice a "merger plan" acceptable to the Boards of Education of Princeton Borough and Township. This 60-year old native of Kansas is the chairman of the so-called Merger Panel, or study group, brought into being to "search out the attitudes and concerns of both municipalities" and to explore separately with both Boards "areas of agreement" on which to base a proposal for merger.

Between now and the "target date," May 1st, when the Merger Panel is to submit its findings-and-or-recommendations, the "Chandler Committee" will be devoting dozens upon dozens of man-hours to its assignment — possibly the most important task, from the point of view of the long-haul, undertaken by any group of volunteer Princetonians in the past decade. Associated with Chandler are Edgar Alden Dunham, Princeton University's youthful Director of Admission; Simon Marcson, Director of Science and Technology Research at Rutgers; Robert Rae Spears Jr., Rector of Trinity Episcopal Church; and Stanley C. Smoyer, brilliant attorney, Johnson & Johnson officer and former Township Committeeman.

To these negotiations, comparable in degree of difficulty to what is now transpiring in Geneva, Paris and even Saigon, Chandler brings three decades of experience in higher education and long years as an officer of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia and as a member of the Research Advisory Board for the Committee for Economic Development. Formerly Acting Director of the University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, Chandler in the upcoming academic year will (for the third time in 12 years), assume the chairmanship of the Department of Economics, an "empire" with a teaching staff of some 45 members.

It was in 1950 that Chandler, a product of the University of Missouri and Yale, was called to Princeton as the first incumbent of the Gordon S. Rentschler Memorial Professorship, a "teaching professorship" designed to give undergraduates a "deeper and richer understanding of the problems and opportunities of human organization in a free society." His qualifications for this distinction, one of the few such professorships in this country, included brief teaching apprenticeships at Dartmouth and Princeton and 13 years as a member of the Department of Economics at Amherst College, where he had been advanced to a full professorship in 1942.

Widely sought as an economic adviser by governmental agencies and congressional subcommittees, and one of the most forceful proponents of the income tax proposals recently buried by a supine New Jersey Legislature, Chandler, a resigned member of Princeton Township's Planning Board, is a prolific writer in the field of economics. His publications during the post-World War II era have included the penetrating, and today highly pertinent, "Inflation in the United States," as well as "Introduction to Monetary Theory," "A Preface to Economics," "Economics of Money and Banking," "Central Banking and Economic Development," and "Benjamin Strong, Central Banker."

For possessing those qualities which prompted a colleague to describe him as a "supra-statesman," for feeling that Borough and Township must continue to seek a "unified system throughout," for his willingness to work for the well-being of the Princeton Community in the decades to come; he is our nominee as

WHOSE HOUSE?
School's Future Debated. A gentleman's disagreement has arisen over the United Fund's proposal, announced last month, to convert the old Witherspoon School building into a community-wide center. The Fund suggested that the old building be remodeled to house "a number of United Fund agencies, the Fund itself, the Council of Community Services, a two-age drop-in lounge, a hobby center for all ages, Recreation Board offices, meeting rooms for agency board members and volunteers, and so on.

And, although the original survey suggested that the Princeton Nursery School expand from its present cramped space on Leigh Avenue into Dorchester House, Fund officials now believe that Witherspoon School with its ready-made playground, might be the best place to re-locate the toddlers.

However, Mayor Henry S. Patterson does not go along with these ideas. He believes that the school property should be used for apartments in strict accordance with the present zoning law.

Zoning regulations specify 20.5 apartment units (14.5 per acre) for that particular piece of property, and no more. Last year, when the Borough Board asked for a variance to allow 26 apartments, Residents of the area raised a vehement protest about density and reminded Borough officials that the neighborhood already holds the record for density in the Borough and said flatly that more would be too much.

Meeting of Minds. "I don't believe apartments, built according to the zoning requirements, would cause that much of a problem," says Mayor Patterson. "If you had a lot of Fund agencies located there with staff members and clients and volunteers coming and going, you'd have a lot more traffic than you would have with apartments."

The disagreement between the school and the fund came to light following a meeting last week in Borough Hall between Mayor Patterson, William Calcutt, executive director of the Fund, Bernard Bernholz, Fund president, Bor-rough Councilman William Walker and Borough Administrator Robert Mooney. Fund officials would like the Borough Board to approve the Engineering building on Witherspoon and Green Streets and use the money to buy Witherspoon School from the Borough of Education. The Engineering Building is on commercial land. Fund officials point out, and would like the Borough Board to use for some commercial development.

More Than 900 Signed

The most unusual advertisement of its kind TOWN TOPICS has ever published appears this week on pages 24 and 25. Under the sponsorship of the Citizens for Borough Schools, an open letter is addressed to the Borough Board of Education urging continued action to effect K-12 merger with the Township. Some 30 men and women conducted a concentrated house-to-house canvass, obtaining the signatures of more than 900 registered Borough voters in less than a week's time.

Commercial? Not Again. Mayor Patterson is on the other side of the street. "We are not interested in having that property turn into a residential," he explains. "There is a long-standing verbal and moral commitment to the John Witherspoon area that we won't let commercial development go any further north—that we'll keep a kind of buffer."

"Besides," he adds, "a teen lounge in the Engineering building would be used by a lot more teen-agers than a lounge in the old school. And Engineering parking space could be used by people going to the library across the street."

Mayor Patterson also thinks it might be unwise to have all the "problem" agencies in a single building on Quarry Street. Would upper-income clients of Family Service be willing to go there for counseling? Would parents balk at taking a disturbed youngster to Child Guidance in a semi-public building where, in a small town, they would run the risk of meeting friends? Would Negroes see a possible stigma in having "problem" agencies in the John-Witherspoon area? To these objections, Mr. Bernholz counters with a defense. The building would be a community center, not a clinic. People coming and going might be patients or clients, but the place might also be Girl Scout volunteers, Recreation Board staff members, or amateur photographers hired for the hobby center's dark-room.

Mayor Patterson also raises this question: would it be fair or even legal, for the Borough to allow such a community center a tax-free status when so many Fund agencies serve people from outside the municipality? This, of course, is a broad question that goes beyond the present dispute, touching as it does the current tax status of the YMCA building and the Child Guidance Center house on Nassau Street. There is still another turn in the corridor. The Fund's Special Panel on Buildings devoted a great deal of careful time and thought to the future of the Engineering Building, Dorchester House and the Witherspoon School before coming up with its proposal. But it never discussed the matter with Mayor Patterson or any other Borough official, until the survey had been completed and the proposal was a "fait accompli."

Neal Skop. What next? Fund officials have talked with representatives of the Borough School Board and the Witherspoon School before coming up with its proposal. But it never discussed the matter with Mayor Patterson or any other Borough official, until the survey had been completed and the proposal was a "fait accompli."

Federal money from the new Grants for Neighborhood Facilities program of the Department of Housing and Urban Development could finance as much as two-thirds of cost of buying the school and remodeling it (Fund survey estimates $170,000 for both).

Federal officials have told Mr. Barnhill they would be happy to come to Princeton and look the school over, and this may be that "next step." But presumably it is the Borough government which would have to ask for the federal money and that takes the question full circle back to Mayor Patterson.

"The Borough doesn't have enough information on the subject yet," Mayor Patterson says, "and we certainly haven't had time to weigh the matter. Mr. Walker, in fact, is the only Councilman who is informed about this at all." The mayor has indicated he feels the proper solution may be to have the United States acquire the necessary land and put up a building of its own.

OPPOSING SCHOOL BOARD

Ask Yes to Miller, The Italian-American Federation of Princeton has asked the Township Board to consider its rejection of the Borough Board's "Miller Plan," and has stated its opposition to a Township High School.

"It is with regret and sadness that we have noted that the Township School Board has seen fit to arbitrarily reject the Miller Plan," the communication states. "Apparently the Board is determined to go ahead in a seemingly headstrong manner with the building of a separate Township High School regardless of cost and practical considerations, and without receiving approval of the voters for such actions."

The letter asks the Board, if it cannot accept the Miller proposals, to continue talks with the Borough Board "toward the development of some other mutually acceptable plan of school regionalization," and suggests that "modified regionalization will turn out to be the perfect plan for Princeton."

In its conclusion the letter states that "members of the Federation strongly oppose a new Township High School as long as any possibility of a Consolidated School System remains." The statement is signed by Anthony Pirone, president of the organization.

Following the school election in February, after the defeat of the Federation's write-in candidate, Township superintendent John J. McKenna and Board president George Grace wrote to the group inviting them to join in conversations aimed at clearing up misconceptions and building a base of mutual understanding.

Spoken for the Federation agreed, but so far, these conversations have not taken place.

Clemenshaw reports everything on schedule, according to Township Committee Chairman William Wilson who outlined the company's progress Monday night.

Committee set Monday, April 18, as the date for public hearing on assessments for sewer extensions on Cherry Hill and Kingston Roads and for the paving of Oakland Road, Paving and sidewalk assessments for Rose Street will be held Monday, May 16.

MORE COPPER STOLEN

From Astro-Physics Site. Copper thieves paid a repeat visit during the weekend to the construction site of the Astro-Physics building which Princeton University is erecting near Palmer Stadium.

Taken were assorted lengths of tubing valued at $120 and a box of copper elbows worth $50 from the stock of M. J. Doyle, Inc., plumbing contractors. This was the second such theft reported by Borough police in two weeks.

The manager of the Singer Company store in the Princeton Shopping Center, Peter Callano of Fairless Hills, Pa., reported the theft Saturday afternoon. A six-inch, portable TV set from a showroom window. It was valued at $165.

University Police reported the theft of a two-section tape recorder last week from an entry of Holder Hall, University campus. The $600 recorder was the property of the University's radio station, WPRB.

700 ATTEND FORUMS
Stress Youth Officers. The three forums on teenage activities in Princeton have drawn an estimated 700 residents to Princeton High School on the past three Monday evenings.

About 200 were present this Monday when audience reaction of the four panels emphasized a willingness to support full-time juvenile officers in Princeton Borough and Township.

The present officers, Ptl. Walter Emmett of the Township and Ptl. Ralph Prosser of the Borough, are assigned to juvenile work on a part-time basis. A police panelist stated, "We teach the little children that we are their friends. We help them across the street. Then, we never see them again until they are in trouble." He stressed the need for the police to play a continuing, and friendly role in their lives.

Four panels drawn from Princeton's roster of psychiatrists, psychologists, druggists, youth leaders, state and local police, held forth at each of the three forums. Monday's roster included Dr. Shirley Van Fersy, Everett Campbell, Captain Gerald Dollar, Ptl. Walter Emma, Rogers Carrington, Dr. Nathaniel Boonin, George Neely, Ptl. Prosser, George Neely, Ptl. Prosser, Sgt. Fred Porter, Dr. Donald Clark, Dr. Willard Dalrymple, Henry deGeorge, Lt. Frank Maguire and Mrs. Ruth Lotz. Moderators were Raymond Male, Jack Rimalover, John Valentine and the Rev. Walter Wagner.

The forums were sponsored by the Parents' Committee on Social Concerns, representatives of the PTA's of Princeton High, Princeton Day, Hun and Stuart Country Day Schools.

A Rabbit.*

April temperatures continue to run well below normal, and neither the live Easter rabbits nor the cheese made kind seem to care. It's just the live kind of humans who'd like to see a warmer.

Well, it won't be — not much, anyway. Cooler than usual right through Easter Sunday, and well on into April, the Man said, agreeing that spring is definitely a little late this year.

Borough-Township school merger takes place and the building might in the future serve as an intermediate school.

Long-range considerations have resulted in oversized classrooms for the new school, capable of subdivision to meet the need for smaller rooms for junior high school teaching.

The John Witherspoon School is expected to open early in May. The formal dedication will be held early in the fall.

"WAY OUT WEST"

For Stock Exchange. Getting out its map of the Far Southwest, the New York Stock Exchange has located West Windsor Township and communicated with its mayor, Malcolm Roszel.

Mayor Roszel has received replies from various Exchange officials to letters he wrote outlining the advantages of West Windsor as a warm refuge from the cold winds of New York City location.

The jist of the replies is that if the New York Stock Exchange decides to go that far from home it would be happy to consider West Windsor.

The Township's Committee has not acted on the matter, and Mayor Roszel wrote independently as mayor, not as spokesman for the Committee.

3 YOUTHS ARRESTED

In Service Station Robbery. Three Princeton area youths have been arrested by Borough police for entering Kline's Express station, 271 Nassau street, during the weekend and stealing $481.81.

Charged with breaking and entering and larceny are John (T. Shambro, 19, 43 Moran Avenue, and John Kuzek, 18, 13 Craven Lane, Lawrenceville. They have been released on $1000 bail and will appear later for a preliminary hearing before Borough Magistrate Theodore T. Tans Jr.

Police identified the third youth as a 17-year-old juvenile from the Township. He was sent to the Mercer County Jail for referral to the Mercer County Juvenile Court.

The theft was reported at 6:30 Saturday morning by Warren Stevens, station manager. Police said entry was gained from the men's room where the youths knocked a hole in the ceiling above the urinals. The money was taken from several canvas bags that were hidden, police said, in a storage room.

Chief Peter J. McCrohan announced that virtually all of the money has been recovered. The entire investigation and subsequent questioning were handled by Detective Russell Chang and Ptl John J. Bellows. "The two officers did a fine job," said Chief McCrohan.

Township police are investigating the entry Monday morning between 12:15 and 6:24 of the Italian-American Sportsmen Club on Terhune Road. Fifteen dollars in petty cash was taken from a storage room located behind the bar and $10 to $12 in coins from a juke box.

Police said entry was gained up cutting a screen behind an unlit window. Mrs. Louis Zabino, 34 Henry Avenue, reported the theft.

News Of The THEATRES

LAST PLAY OFFERS

In Repertory, Something fresh and happy has come to McCarter's spring repertory in the form of a rarely performed Irish play from the 1860's. It is "Arrah-na-Pogue" by the obscure Irish dramatist Dion Boucicault, and it's an honest, open, happy-hearted evening of theatre.

"Arrah-na-Pogue" is, of course, a 100-year-old melodrama which all that description implies in the way of villainy thwarted and virtue triumphant. Arthur Lithgow has directed the play straightforwardly without poking fun. Allowing the natural humor to shine through.

Our scene is set, as the used to say, in the oppressed Ireland of British redcoats and rebel Irishmen. In the hills, Arrah is a spirited Irish lass, blooming and joyous on the morn of her wedding to the ardent Shamus the Post. She is called Arrah-na-Pogue — Arrah of the Kiss — because it was a kiss from her that saved the adored rebel, Beamin MacCool. (How the kiss saved him is something you will discover for yourself.)

Villainy enters in the cringing form of Michael Fenny, who lusts after Arrah and is determined to break her spirit and bring her crawling to his side.

Well, there is Irish music. Shaun even sings "The Wearing of the Green" although he knows that a man caught singing that traitorous song can be hanged — and Irish dancing and ancient Irish poetry and it all ends with a happy tableau and a good deal of heavy Irish kissing.

McCarter brings out almost the whole company, but the lion you'll remember and take home is James Tripp as Fenny, the villain. Deliciously low and sinuous, with his false grin and dirty whickers, he leaves little trail of green slime wherever he walks. For a time there, you're afraid that maybe he'll win out, but would a good Irishman like Boucicault let an inferior go free?

As Arrah, Anne Gee Byrd is perfect in full short petticoats and green-laced stockings, loyal to the rebel MacCool and to her beloved Shaun even if it means the British fallows.

It will unsettle you briefly to find the company's Fanny, Clarence Fidler, cast in the role of the romantic lover, Shaun. The part really requires someone tall, slim and dashing, but perhaps Arrah loves him for his big heart. David Byrd is Beamin MacCool, the rebel who hides in Arrah's barn, and he swish his dark and enveloping cape with true rebel lean.

His dearly beloved, a lady named Fanny with shabby and shaking affections, is Anne Murray. A comic actress, Anne Murray? After "Miss Julie"? Apparently so, because she is in line come from.

She and Mr. Lithgow have decided to direct Fanny the affetation of articulated muscles. Even in the heat of a scene-on, therefore, Fanny says "affee-on-on" and "con-vice-on." An Irish lady, perhaps, imitating British inflections? A delightful little comic device.

Of all the McCarter spring presentations, "Arrah" is the one we can recommend most unreservedly. It is honest and warm, entertaining and full of good fun. You have never seen it before and may never again, but you'll remember it's alive charm and its genuine evolution of a good time.

HIM vs. HER
It is Lysistrata Comedy. Aristophanes' raucous comedy, "Lysistrata," is played this weekend to an appreciative audience that neither filled the house nor the theatre. It's the heroine "lion of women," gives a spirited performance, calving the ladies of Greece to the cause of peace.

Music of Princeton
By Louis Snyder
In its second appearance this season last night at Kaufmann Concert Hall of the YN-TWILA, the Princeton Chamber Orchestra, under Nicholas Harsanyi's disciplined direction, again impressed with its collective quality of beautiful sound, born of a happy co-ordination of dedicated individual virtuoso players.
The program offered an embarrassment of riches, since there were duo-guitar concertos by Haydn and Vivaldi played by the stunning Ida Presti and Alexander Lagoya, Hindemith's "Trauermusik" with violist Karen Tuttle as adept soloist.
The Presti-Lagoya guitars, in both the Haydn and the Vivaldi, were nothing short of extraordinary, with the Andante of the Vivaldi G major concerto achieving some new high in its persuasive synthesis of forgotten sound. Their particular dignity as performers was doubly impressive in this ideal setting for such personal charm and intimacy.

Topkapi and The Train. Thru Thursday, Melinda Mercouri and Maximilian Schell star in the mystery-soff concerning Jewel Blaves out to lift an emerald-studded sagger housed in Topkapi Palace Museum, Istanbul.

Peter Onofri, who runs away with the show appears as an English-speaking guide who is down on his luck. An amusing show.

The Train, seen here last June, concerns a little-known but true incident of World War II. It is a fascinating cat-and-mouse tale of French pacifists who try to prevent the retreating Germans from taking with them a trainload of museum treasures.

The protagonists are Burl Lanchester as the French engineer and demolition expert, and Paul Scofield as the German colonel in charge of the great theft. The battle of wits ends with an ironic question of values.

The Ugly Duckling and Winnie the Pooh and the Honey Bear return Friday.

Two Disney films in Technicolor. The early matinee time is planned to avoid adding to Princeton's traffic problem.

Both films are fine family fun, featuring the well-known Disney magic with animals. The dachshund and Great Dane pup steal every scene in "The Ugly Duckling." In the case of winning performance by Dean Jones and Suzanne Pleshette. "Winnie the Pooh" is a charmer.

your problems. Ambleside is closed on Mondays, but on any other weekday, there is plenty of time to make plans and solve problems.

On Saturdays and Sundays, the place is crowded with people buying all those zales and tuberous begonias for summer homes and the dachshund and the dachshund... well, you see what we mean.

We mentioned trillium. Wildflowers will be big with Ambleside this spring. Jack-in-the-pulpit, trailing arbutus is tricky one to grow, that fellow, maidenhair fern and other ferns, hepatics and more than 20 herbs. Herb seeds, in packets, too, as you know, but these 20 are the plants.

If you're concerned about the hardiness of wild flowers, most of them will be ones they're used to. The owner, has grown herself and brought to successful flowerings. Native shrubs like winterberry, chokeberry, shadow and four dogwoods (favorite) will be spring specialties at Ambleside and blackberry lily, Persian candytuft and artemisia, too.

about the garden bark from Douglas fir trees. You may have it in three-inch chips or in standard size shavings. White pebbles, a big-pebble mix and colored pebbles have been used in Ambleside's own planting so that you can see sizes and shapes and decide what's best for your own ground cover.

Serious gardeners in the family will buy de Grassis's tiles (wall) you see "Black Dragon". With care, you can have bloom from June to August and as you know, these lilies multiply and spread so luxuriously that in just a few seasons, you'll have a thick and opulent bouquet.

Price range from three for $1 to $1.95 apiece (for the deep pink ones). Most are 40-50 cents. Right now, they are in bulk cots but Ambleside will put the lilies and sell them posted throughout the growing season.

Incidentally, save money on trees and shrubs at Ambleside by buying them bare-root instead of balled-and-buried.

Courts in the family will buy asparagus plants, grapes, blueberries, dwarf or standard fruit trees.

April being what she is, no body seems quite to know whether the day of your visit to Ambleside will be warm or chill. But there's a chunky little Franklin stove in the middle of the display room with a fire to glow its welcome to you if the day is raw. Warm your hands before you begin.

are nostalgic for the type of hero-detective Humphrey Bogart used to enact years ago will welcome this film.

Harper's assignment is to find a missing husband. There are blind alleys, brutal beatings and sudden deaths. The leads go from one eccentric character to another in a series of "dead" locales. Through it all is Harper's cynical humor.

Lauren Bacall is the straitlaced wife of the missing millionaire. Sexy Pamela Tiffin is her spoiled step-daughter. Robert Wagner is the missing man's pilot. Julie Harris is cast as a night club singer addicted to drugs and mysteriously mixed up in the crime. Shelley Winters and Janet Leigh are somehow mixed up in it, too.

THREE IN APRIL

Mean, Seeger, Ellington. Marcel Marceau is the first of McCarter's April Specialists to check in at the stage-door.

The French pantomimist will appear on Friday, April 22, at 8:30, straight from a sold-out tour of North and South America. "His act" is nothing new to M. Marceau, of course, and that's the sign they usually hang out at McCarter. As of now, however, tickets are still available.

The next night—Friday, April 23—Duke Ellington will make his very first Princeton appearance, the occasion being Princeton University's "Response" weekend program.

Pete Seeger, last of the April trio, will perform at Alexander Hall on the University campus at 9 p.m. Saturday, April 30. It's his first Princeton appearance since 1962. Seeger's latest album is "God Bless the Grass."

YOUNG BEN IS NEXT

For Children. "Young Ben Franklin," with dance and comedy, will come to McCarter on Tuesday, April 19, at 2:30 as the next in the Children's Entertainment Series sponsored by the Borough P.T.A.

Ben Franklin, the mature statesman, narrates the story of Ben Franklin the boy, rising from poverty and obscurity to a manhood of fame and fortune.

"RUNNER" COMING

With Tom Courtenay. "Devisating" he ends you home beat-hroken and uplifted."

That was the critical judgement of young Tom Courtenay in "Tom Courtenay's Long Distance Runner," the brilliant British film that will be shown at McCarter next Tuesday at 3 in the International Film Series.

Tom Courtenay, who directed "Tom Jones," directed "Runner." The story tells about an 18-year-old slum bred boy who is sent to a reformatory. In spite of his contempt for authority, he becomes the school's best runner and the strongest bet to win in competition against a private school.

Parkside Drive were entered on Sunday.
Approximately $800 worth of jewelry, including gold rings set with diamonds, and a starter's pistol were taken from the home of Benjamin Kohn, 34 Parkside.

Police said the entry occurred between 7:15 p.m. and 8 p.m. They believe the intruders were frightened off when Mr. Kohn returned home at 8. Sgt. Jack Petrone investigated.

A maid reported the entry of the home of Fred Fields, 25 Parkside.

Police said the entire home was ransacked with articles strewn all over, but they have been unable to determine as yet if anything was taken. Three doors were found open when Ptl. Frank Roccaforte, the investigating officer, arrived.

NEW DIRECTOR NAMED
For Nursing Home, Mrs. Grace C. Fry has been appointed director of Merwick Princeton Hospital's nursing center for geriatric cases and the chronically ill. Mrs. Fry has directed the hospital's social service department since 1960.

Merwick, formally called the Elgin Procter Matthews Unit, is located on a nine-acre estate off Bayard Lane. The home now accommodates 36 patients, and there is a waiting list of those wishing to enter the home. The list is expected to grow with the inauguration of the Medicare program.

Mrs. Fry came to Princeton in 1949. She has served as secretary to the building fund, to the hospital's pathologist and to the administrator. She has also been executive director of the Princeton Chapter of the Red Cross.

BOTHERED BY CONSCIENCE
Youth Admits Theft. A Princeton youth who entered and robbed Princeton Stationers, 68 Nassau Street, in February was able to escape detection but not his conscience. John M. Provenciano, 19, 42 Carnahan Place, is free on $500 bail awaiting a preliminary hearing Monday before Magistrate Theodore T. Tams Jr. He was arrested earlier by police and charged with breaking and entering and larceny.

Chief Peter J. McCrohan admitted that it was he who entered the stationery store on February 21 and stole $75 from a box under the front counter, a .22 calibre pistol and a starter's pistol. He added that he was accompanied by a juvenile, the same youth arrested this week for taking

EGG HUNTS PLANNED

By Lions and Eagles. Easter egg hunts are planned for Saturday by both the Princeton Lions Club and the Princeton Eagles. The rain date for both is April 16.

The Lions' hunt will begin at 10 a.m. at Marcusand Park. Children up to 10 years old are invited. J. Van Skillman and his committee are planning the affair.

Registration for the Eagles' hunt will begin at 12:30 at the field on Broadmead. Children up to 14 are eligible. Tickets may be obtained from hunt chairman Herbert Stout, 15 Bank Street, or any Eagles member.

LOSES LICENSE 36 DAYS

For Speeding. Philip Accord, 26, Edgemere Avenue, Plainville, was fined $40 for speeding Monday by Borough Magistrate Theodore T. Tams Jr., who also revoked his license for 30 days. David L. Potter, 23, Rosedale Road, paid $35 for the same offense. Joseph K. Carlson, 82 Harris Road, paid $15 for driving a motorcycle without a tail-light and Robert C. Williams, 20, a Princeton University student, paid $15 for careless driving. The latter pleaded not guilty. In criminal court, Larry Brooks, 13 Shirley Court, forfeited $50 bail when he failed to appear to answer a charge of larceny.

NEW PRESIDENT ELECTED

By Bryn Mawr Club. Mrs. Joseph Wilder, 159 Valley Road, has been elected president of the Bryn Mawr College Club of Princeton. She succeeds Mrs. Ernest Lynton. The club is currently planning its 35th annual benefit book sale which will be held April 27, 28 and 29 at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Thousands of second-hand books will be on sale at a small percent of their original cost. Proceeds from the sale are used for scholarships for Princeton girls attending Bryn Mawr. Those wishing to donate Temple, John and Lyle books, prints or sheet music to the W. J. State Department should call Mrs. Joseph Wilder, 924-9083; Mrs. Gilbert Nicol, 925-4074, or Mrs. Peter Erdman, 924-0023.

MASONIC TEMPLE TARGET OF ABC Agents. The Mason-

Temple, John and Lyle Streets, was visited by agents of the W. J. State Department shortly after midnight Sunday. According to Chief Peter J. McCrehan, the agency was alleged to have discovered the following violations: serving to Young actives love Sportempos!

Fresh as spring — our mix and match coordinats from Sportempos.

We love the look of floral print line slacks teamed up with a matching jacket and contrasting antron shell. The print, in tones of pink, yellow and blue on green, plays mix and match with coordinated solid slacks and skirts. Jacket at $20.00 — Slacks at $15.00 and shell at $11.00.

Our sleeveless antron top, in a swirling modern design combines the same bold shades over our eased skirt of co-ordinating green. Equally as sharp with slacks. Top at $12.00 and skirt at $12.00.

non-members, customers on premises after hours, and threatening an ABC agent. No alcoholic beverages can be served in the Borough after 12 midnight.

Chief McCrohan emphasized this was only a verbal report. "I haven't received any formal report from the ABC yet," he said.

PLANNING, ZONING TOPIC Of West Windsor Meeting. The meeting of the West Windsor Democratic Club to be held Tuesday evening at 8 at Bear Brook Tavern will be devoted to considering what in which township planning and zoning policies could be improved.

Owen R. Healey, a former mayor of Lawrence Township, will be the speaker. He will discuss a project of the Lawrence Township which requires that developers dedicate portions of land for purposes such as playgrounds and open space.

PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED

At Princeton University. Thirty-nine members of the Princeton University faculty have been advanced to higher ranks.

Those promoted to full professor are: aerospace and mechanical sciences, Dunstan Graham; art and archeology, Robert A. Koch; chemical engineering, William R. Schwallier; classics, Frank C. Bourne; electrical engineering, George Warfield; geological engineering, William E. Bonni; geology, Heinrich D. Holland; mathematics, Robert C. Gunning; politics, Leon Gordenker; psychology, Harold M. Schroder; romance languages, Edmund L. King. Seventeen others were named associate professors and 11 to the newly-designed rank of assistant professor.

JAYCEES ELECT OFFICERS In Montgomery Township. New and prospective members of the future Montgomery Township Jaycees have elected temporary officers. Joseph Warren will serve as chairman, Richard Schmidt as secretary and Robert Schmid as treasurer.

The new organization is currently seeking men from 21 to 35 interested in acquiring leadership training by participating in community activities. The group's membership goal is 25.

When the goal is reached, the Jaycees will elect permanent officers and apply for a charter from the New Jersey Jaycees. When the Montgomery Jaycees are granted a charter, the Belle Mead Jaycees, from which the Montgomery group is an offshoot, will become the Hillsborough Jaycees.

FOUR LOSE LICENSES

Under Point, Speed Laws. Four Princeton area drivers have had their licenses suspended by the Division of Motor Vehicles.

Per B. Jensen, 21, 2033 Lawrenceville Road, Lawrenceville, and E. T. Waters, 3rd, 19, 115 Longview Drive, each lost his license for 30 days for speeding. Two who exceeded the point limit are Jerry Graham, 19, 223 W. Delaware Avenue, Pennington, three months, and Lawrence Ray, 32, 30 Main Street, Cranbury, one month.

EDUCATOR TO SPEAK

To Barnard College Club. Miss Rosemary Park, president of Barnard College, will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Barnard College Club of Mercer County on Thursday evening, April 28. She will talk on "The Future of the Liberal Arts College".

Before becoming president of Barnard, in 1963, Miss Park was president of Connecticut College for 13 years. Her visit will mark the first anniversary of the new club.

REPORTS SCHEDULED

On Vocational Training. John M. Cummings and William C. McNeely, both of the vocational division of the New Jersey Department of Education and members of the pilot survey committee on vocational at training, will give a committee progress report to the West Windsor P.T.A. on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Dutch Neck School.

The committee is planning a survey in Mercer County to determine how many students would benefit from vocational training and for what jobs training should be offered. The snower from questionnaires filled out by students will be collected by an IBM machine and considered by the department.

The following slate of officers will also be presented to the P.T.A. at the Wednesday meeting: Kenneth Schwartz, president; Mrs. George Trifled, first vice-president; Mrs. Hugh Chromister, second vice-president.

BURDEN LIGHTENED

For President Gabeen. The new office of Provost has been created by Princeton University to relieve the president of the increasing burdens of an expanding institution. The Provost will also serve in case the president is absent or disabled.

The new post will be filled by J. Douglas Brown, who has been Dean of the Faculty since 1943, and a member of the faculty since 1923.

On July 1, 1967, when Dean Brown reaches the statutory retirement age of 68, Professor William G. Bowen will become Provost. Dr. Bowen is Director of the Graduate Program of the Woodrow Wilson School.

Robert R. Palmer, who left Princeton in 1963 to become first Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences at Washington University, in St. Louis, will return to Princeton to succeed Dean Brown as Dean of the faculty. He will also rejoin the history department.

The moves mark a major change in the structure of the University's central administration. Harold H. Helm, chairman of the executive committee of the University's Board of Trustees said, in commenting on the change:

"This accentuates the ever-mounting responsibilities a university president must shoulder in the 1960's. His is a demanding, complex and nerve-racking job in which he must find ways of sharing administrative overloads so that he may have time for the essential task of shaping educational policies."

The Provost, under the direction of the president, will attend to the overall academic development of the University and will co-ordinate matters of curriculum, staff and policy.

ARTISTS DELIVER

To Wine Tasting. Fourteen artists have contributed their wares for display and sale at the Wine Tasting to be held Saturday, April 16, from 5 to 8 p.m. for the benefit of the Princeton Chamber Orchestra. The sketches, drawings and paintings will be at Princeton Day School, where the tasting will be held, and guests may buy them right off the walls.

Tickets for the Tasting, at $6 each, are available from Mrs. Lisa Burgers, 270 Hamil-

How To Survive
The National Fire Protection Association said that careless use of matches and smoking leads to other causes of home fires. They said that 9 out of 10 home fires could be prevented if you kept matches away from tiny hands, and encouraged adults to smoke safely (And never in bed); did not misuse electricity by improper fuses, overloading circuits and defective wiring and appliances; checked, clean, and repair heating equipment annually; use fire retardant; never allow gasoline, benzene, naphtha or other flammable liquids in the home for any purpose. (Never use such flammable liquids for dry cleaning or to kind a fire; keep rubbish and unnecessary combustibles regularly removed from the house. Merger — Without Delay.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
On February 8th the Borough electorate voted on three candidates who stood for Borough-Township school merger. These candidates, and the idea of full K-12 merger, won. That victory gave the Education Board of Education a mandate for merger and a solid majority to work for it.

In addition, the Township has rejected the compromise Miller Plan. Our choice, to be realistic, is now narrowed to K-12 merger with the Township — or none. We ask the Borough Board of Education to work for a plan for effective merger, actively, deliberately and without delay.

Those who voted on February 8th — and so did so in the firm belief that this was exactly what our voice meant. As soon as we have a chance to vote for such a plan, CBS confidently anticipates its acceptance by a large majority. The reasonableness of that confidence is demonstrated by the fact that over 500 Borough voters have signed an open letter to the Borough School Board advocating complete reorganization of Borough and Township school systems.

Editor's Note: For the open letter and its 900 signatures, see pages 24 and 25.

For the Children's Sake.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
The recent election of pro-merger candidates to the school board was not effected solely by a desire for merger on the part of a majority of borough voters. Recently I was reminded by a neighbor that although she is in favor of merger, she voted for the candidates she felt were best qualified for the demanding role of leadership in public education.

My neighbor spoke for me — and I think for most of us. That those winning candidates were strong advocates of merger of our public schools from kindergarten through twelfth grade may be an indication of their ability to put aside insular, prejudiced and out-dated thinking in favor of continued high standards and improvements in the education of all Princeton public students.

I wonder if we elders have considered how our evident "we and they" attitude might affect the children.

And are we so unsure of democracy that many of us believe no equitable financial structure can be set up for a merged school system?

It is possible there are deep feelings against merger that were written about and talked about.

I have felt sorry that the "old Princeton" is no more. Those of us who arrived late cannot simply disappear in order to restore it. The hole in the doughnut will become the hole in the doughnut. And whether the hole loses the doughnut or the doughnut loses the hole, it is bad for the whole.

I am one of those who would like to be part of a Princeton divided against itself. We fall to see good reasons why at least the children's schools should be unified as soon as possible.

MARIA J. HOLT,
Mrs. Alfred Holt

"Offer My Own Plan."

To the Editor of Town Topics:
I note with interest the new (?) Miller Plan for achieving merger of the Princeton Township and Borough Schools. I would caution, however, against unseemly haste in adopting this plan. Who knows or can foretell what pitfalls and disasters may arise three or four years after this plan is put into effect? If it is adopted without mature deliberation.

I suggest that when the joint committee studying the plan submits its report on May 1, 1966, that a new joint committee be appointed to study the report of the first joint committee. This New committee's report could then be studied by a new committee, etc., etc.

I now offer for consideration my own plan for merger which I call the Blumenfeld or "How to Merge the School Systems Without Ever Having To Do So" Plan. The Plan is simple itself and is based on the solidly grounded and well-established principle set down by the Supreme Court in school integration cases. This principle is, of course, the achievement of a desirable end "with all deliberate speed."

The details of the B or ITMTSSWEITDS Plan follow in outline form for maximum clarity and ready reference.

A. Both Boards of Education appoint a joint board to administer the 12th grade. The joint board consists of two members from each of the boards who then choose an impartial arbitrator as President from a list supplied by the

PEACE MARCHERS HERE
En Route to U.N. Students and young conscious objectors on an "Easter-Passover Peace March" will be in Princeton this Thursday night on their way from Philadelphia to the United Nations in New York.
Princeton residents may meet and talk with them at 8:30 p.m. this Thursday at the Friends Meeting House, Quaker
Bridges Road off Mercer.
The marchers will spend the night in the Friends' First Day School building and leave at 9:30 Friday for New York.
The march is sponsored by the Friends Peace Committee of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, the Fellowship of Reconciliation, the mid-Atlantic regional division of the American Friends Service Committee, the Committee for Non-Violent Action and Students for Non-Violence.

LOVE TREES?
Meeting Welcomes You. Tree lovers and people who just like to sit in the shade are welcome to attend the next meeting of the Borough's Shade Tree Commission.
The gathering will be held on Wednesday, April 20, for the purpose of hearing a slide-illustrated talk by E. F. Braun-man, former arborist for Englewood, New Jersey. He will speak on the planting of downtown business areas. A discussion and question period will follow.
The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. on the second floor of the Borough Engineering Building, Witherspoon and Green Streets.

TO CLEAR HYDRANTS Water May Be Disrupted.
Brief periods of discolored water or drops in pressure may occur during the annual flushing of fire hydrants, scheduled to begin this week in Borough and Township.
Hydrant flushing is a device for testing pressures at the hydrants and making certain that each hydrant is in working order. The Princeton Water Company expects to complete the program in about six weeks.

"OPEN SPACE" EXPANDS
More Land Acquired. Formal state approval has been received by the Township Open Space Commission for purchase of the 24-acre Van Dyke

Wright property on Snowdrift
Lane. The Open Space Commission also reported this week that it has received verbal approval for the Federal government's share in the Wright purchase.
The Commission has submitted to the state its application for Green Acres money to buy the 84-acre Herrintown Woods area, and Commission members are counseling now preparing the application for Federal money for the parcel of land.

Penpacker and University plots of land, west of The Great Road — totaling 22.2 acres — have not been acquired and so has the entire tract of more than 55 acres. The total acreage in all these parcels is about 180.

LAPLACA APPEAL? May Continue case, Charles LaPlaca, defendant last month when the Appellate Division of the Superior Court decided in favor of the Borough in its zoning variance case, may try the State Supreme Court, William Baggett, attorney for Mr. LaPlaca, said he and his client will decide by the end of this week whether to ask the Supreme Court for the necessary writ of certiorari.

Both Mr. Baggett and Hugh Wise, attorney for the Borough in this instance, believe there is a good chance the Supreme Court will decide to take on the case, because it has important legal implications.

Mr. LaPlaca was granted a variance by the Borough Zoning Board to build 40 apartments on his three-acre Harrison Street plot, but Borough Council reversed the Zoning Board's decision. The LaPlaca property lies in a single or two-family zone.

Mr. LaPlaca then won a favorable decision from Superior Court on the grounds that Council's refusal was "arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable," and that there were not enough facts in the record to justify Council's "no."

The question, according to Borough officials, is whether Council has the right to exercise independent judgment in evaluating the record presented to the Zoning Board.

WRITER TO SPEAK

On American Male, Mrs. Elaine Kendall, a Princeton resident and free-lance writer, will speak on her book, "Upper Hand," at the monthly meeting of the Wyman Club Monday at 8:30 p.m. in the faculty lounge of Princeton University's Engineering Quadrangle.

Mrs. Kendall's book concerns the American male. Waves of Princeton University students are invited to attend the meeting.

HUNGARIAN TO SPEAK

UN Ambassador, "Hungarian Foreign Policy" will be the subject of a public lecture to be given this Thursday at 7 p.m. by Karolyi Miklos, Hungarian Ambassador to the United Nations. The lecture will be given in the auditorium of the new McCormick Art Museum behind Whig Hall on the University campus.

An Open Letter To THE PRINCETON BOROUGH BOARD From Over 900 B

We continue to advocate K-12 merger with the Township and fair basis. We urge the Borough School Board to fulfill the February 8th election to work out such a program with part.

We believe that thoughtful citizens of both communities merger.

SPORTS In Princeton

BASEBALL, CREW ON TAP
Spring Season at Hand. Six baseball games in ten days and a three-race program with Rutgers in rowing Saturday are proof that spring is here, regardless of the Weather Man's near-total lack of cooperation.

For the first time in two decades, Princeton's crews will go to the stake boats on Carnegie without Dutch Seehoe in charge. The veteran coach has relinquished his duties following a siege of heart trouble last summer, and Pete Sparhawk is one-time Cornell stroke, has replaced him.

For Sparhawk's opening regatta against Rutgers will provide an early measuring stick. Estimated to be about the equal of last year's shell, the Scarlet won here a year ago and a reversal of the result would be a welcome omen.

Only two members of the Tiger eight have had more than a year of varsity experience. The varsity race is set for 4:30 over the mile and three-quarter distance, the freshman rowing at 3:50 and the Jovyes 20 minutes later.

BALL TEAM FALLS SHORT
Inconvenient in Florida. In a full week of action in the Rollins Tournament at Winter Park, Fla., Princeton's team failed to hit, field or pitch with consistency. Off to a better start because of the mild mid-March weather than they were a year ago when they won the tournament without first having practiced outside, the Tigers took third place with a 3-2-1 mark.

Rollins lost only to Maine in the double round-robin to compile a 2-1 record winning the event. Maine was 4-1-1 and the fourth entry, Rochester, 1-5, winning its only game at Princeton's expense.

Back at Clarke Field, the Tigers were scheduled to open their home season Wednesday against a strong Villanova niner. New Hampshire will be here this Thursday at 4, and Rider will come over from its Lawrenceville campus Saturday at 2, bent on revenge for the 4-3 defeat which Princeton inflicted on it last year to knock it out of a possible trip to College World Series in Omaha.

Manhattan is on the schedule next Tuesday and Seton Hall Thursday, both slating lines at 4 o'clock. Princeton's first Eastern League game will be played the following Saturday against Cornell.

Pitching Doesn't Measure Up.
The Tigers' three top pitchers each gave one good performance in Florida but also had unimpressive outings on other occasions — some of it traceable to sloppy fielding. Senior Tom Scott hurled fine ball in beating Maine, 2-1, in the opening round but later in the week was the only pitcher to be beset by Rochester.

John Reduth, another senior defeated Rochester, 6-2, but lasted only two-thirds of an inning against Rollins. Graham Harcott was also beset by Rollins, but batted well in the second game against the home team.

As anticipated, a weak offense further complicated life for the pitchers as Princeton scored only 15 runs in the half-dozen games. In the field, the Orange and Black impressed by playing its first two games without an error, then committed a total of nine in its next two.

Here and there, the team hit well, the extra base blows including several doubles, triples and a home run. But clutch hitting, steady fielding and consistent pitching all evaded the Tigers and until they appear at Clarke Field, so will victories at home.

JOHNS HOPKINS BEATEN
In Lacrosse, 7 to 1. Out in front early and almost invariably in charge, Princeton's lacrosse team recorded its first victory since 1963 over Johns Hopkins Saturday, 7 to 1. A chilled but highly appreciative crowd of close to 1,000 sat in on the activity at Campbell Field.

The visitors, beaten for the third time in as many games this season, were strictly sub-par for a Hopkins team. Defensive difficulties plagued them throughout and they rarely sustained an attack, although they trailed by no more than 3-1 at the half.

In dominating the game, Coach Ferris Thumson's operations displayed good stick-handling, accurate passing and an improving defense. Much of the credit for the last score goes to Graeme Flinders, who gave an agile, occasionally spectacular performance in the goal.

Bob Mueller, paired the Princeton scoring with two shots into the cage, the contest remaining close until three Tiger tallies broke it open in the final period. The Orange and Black faces Navy at Annapolis Saturday, with the strong naddhipmen favored.

months in Princeton Hospital recovering from a broken neck suffered in the final minutes of the last game of his career. Although eventual complete recovery — save for ability to participate in contact sports — is expected, he decided during his long weeks in traction to forgo a life of teaching and coaching, and plans instead to go into medicine.

The 22-year old Lambertville resident, who prepared for Princeton at Han, hopes to enter medical school in the fall of 1967. His injury will delay his graduation from Princeton by a year, although he has kept up partially with his studies because Mrs. Savidie went daily to his office lectures with a tape recorder. He took his term-end examinations in January from his hospital bed, achieving an average equivalent to a B-minus.

Savidie's injury, sustained when his head was snapped back abruptly when it struck Dartmouth fullback Mike Urbank's knee, was a critical one and the time for recovery has far exceeded original predictions. Following long weeks of virtual immobility, he walked for the first time six days before his hospital discharge. The day after he returned home to 130 Spruce Street, however, he spent a part of the afternoon watching the Johns Hopkins lacrosse game.

BRADLEY STILL AT IT

Leads Italians to Title. The Bill Bradley legend continued during the basketball season just ended, although the later chapter was written more than 3,000 miles from Princeton.

Playing for Gimnastika of Milan, the three-time All-American led the Italians to the European championship. Beaten on successive nights were quintets from Rome on which a number of Soviet Olympic players were members and one from Czechoslovakia. The team from Prague was defeated, 77 to 72 in the finals, with Bradley scoring 14 points, contributing numerous assists and directing the victory attack throughout the game.

TENNIS DEMAND HEAVY

Additional Classes Formed. To meet the demand for spring tennis instruction, additional classes have been formed to accommodate the registrants. Mrs. Lewis Kraft, coordinator for the programs conducted in the Princeton area, reports that almost 500 boys and girls and over 200 adults have enrolled for spring tennis instruction.

Jane James Fitzpatrick (924-1190) may be called to find out if there is still space available in the community classes. Mrs. Charlotte Christianson at the YWCA (924-4825) for information on the YW classes and Walter Sgor of the YMCA for information on men's and boy's classes.

Ellis classes start the week of April 16. Those who have been accepted for the spring classes have already been given information confirming day, time and class location.

SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

For Trout Fishermen. Trout season for New Jersey fishermen will begin Saturday morning at 8 in waters that include more than 60 lakes and ponds and over 750 miles of stream.

According to the Fish and Game Division, stream levels are somewhat higher than last year. Because of the low water levels that prevailed last summer, which hampered the growth of fish, the size of trout is more variable than usual.

Checks of major streams and lakes have found fish ranging from 7 to over 18 inches, the average being 9 1/4. A year ago the average size was 9.91 inches.

Out of a total stocking of 22,000 trout, nearly 130,000 are rainbow, nearly 60,000 are brook trout. Many of these have been released in southern streams, since they adapt well to the higher acidity of these waters. Increasing numbers of brook trout will be used for in-season restocking.

Fischer, got himself in trouble in short order by walking the leadoff batter. A double and another free pass loaded the bases.

Bill McQuade's bobble on a ball hit at shortstop allowed the first run to score and a bloop single sent home the second. PIS coach Harry Zoll retired Fischer after the inning in favor of Joe Harding.

The Little Tigers got one back in their half of the first when Don Juhers, junior left fielder, braced a long shot deep to right center. He scored standing up. Sald Zoll from the bench. "That's one of the nicest hits I've seen in a long time." Juhers was mobbed by his teammates.

Harding Effective. Meanwhile, Harding was proving to be an effective hurler. "He throws a nice ball; they won't get anything off him," observed Zoll. Harding made a prophet out of his coach as he blanked Cathedral over the first six innings.

In the eighth and last frame, PIS knotted the score. —Continued on Page 30

Saphmore Tom Yoder, pinch-hitting for Dave Bogie, singled for Princeton's second hit. He was forced home on a walk to McQuade after two foul errors had loaded them up.

In the bottom of the eighth, Yoder, now pitching, singled again, sending Jack VanZandt to third. The threat died, however, when Rich Volk fanned and Rick Ryan grounded out on a close play to end it.

The starting lineup for the first game had Tom Wood at first; Jack Van Zandt, 2d; Bill McQuade, ss; Rich Volk, 3d; Don Juhers, if; Curt Mitchell, cf; Tim Hainch, rf; Lou Balestieri, c; and Chris Fischer, p. On the basis of his hitting, Yoder has earned himself a starting berth.

CITIZEN NOTES

Bowling First In the Nassau League, Citicell Electric has taken over first place, replacing Grover Lumber which it leads 50 to 46 wins. Decker's Dairy, which held the top spot two weeks ago,

TRACKMAN IMPRESSIVE
In his second win, The Princeton High School track team took off to a fast start Sunday when it defeated visiting Steinetz with surprising ease, 80 to 46. Highlights were a first place finish by Jeff Bennett in the low and high hurdles and the broad jump for 15 points, and a PHS sweep of the javelin event. There, juniors Keith Conover and Dan Tindall recorded individual times of 1:00 and 1:04 feet. Craig Beschell was third.

Coach Jerry Groninger's reaction: "I was surprised," he said. "I don't know whether we're stronger or Steinetz was a little weaker than I thought they would be."

Groninger added that the cold and wind combined to make the times a little slower and the distances a little less. "The boys lighten up to fight the cold," he said.

Jeff Bullock captured first in the 100-yard dash and second in the 220 and high jump for 18 points. Robert Way vaulted 14-6 to win that event and took second-place honors in the broad jump for eight points, the same number made by Carl DeCavalente. Carl won the shot with a toss of 50-8½ and placed second in the discus.

A new event — the two-mile run — has been added to the 13 other events and Pete Michaels won it for the Little Tigers in the face time of 10:21. Groninger reported that it would be listed as the school record for the event. He said that it was a good time for a high school performer and added Michaels has the potential to lower his time to an even 10 minutes.

Dave Mossmann won the half mile with a 55-second effort. Although PHS did not win the high jump, the second and third place finishes by Bullock and Jim Greiner drew praise from Groninger. "Both boys hit 5-8 and that's higher than we've been jumping the past few years," he commented.

PHS BLANKED 1-0
By Steinetz. "We got some hitting . . ." Princeton High baseball coach Harry Zoll told reporters at the start of the season. His concern gave every indication of becoming a reality Tuesday afternoon as the Little Tigers collected only two hits off Steinetz pitching and were shutout, 1-0. In two games, PHS has a total of five hits.

Chris Fischer went all the way for the visiting Blue and White. His performance was much more solid than the one he gave in Friday's opener when he lasted only one inning. Against Steinetz, he limited the Spains to three hits, struck out one and walked three.

Princeton mounted a threat to tie it up in the seventh and final inning. Lou Balestrino was hit by a pitch, stole second and advanced to third on a passed ball. Dave Bogia was sent in to run for him.

After Nick Ryan, pinch-hitting, fanned for the first out, Rich Vols attempted to squeeze Bogia home. The pitcher threw Vols out at first and Bogia, who had hesitated half way down, was doubled up at the plate.

Steinetz scored his lone run in the sixth inning when Vols was unable to handle a ball hit by him at a third, permitting a runner on third to score. Shortstop Bill McGuire backing up the play, couldn't get the ball over to first in time.

Vols and sophomore Tom Yoder were responsible for Princeton's two hits. Yoder, filling in for the injured Jack Van Zandt at second base, is now the leading hitter on the team with three hits in five at bats. On the debit side, eleven Little Tigers fanned. First baseman Tommy Wood was a victim three times in succession.

There was one bright spot in the generally murky play of the Blue and White. The team committed only one error.

piling from Maloney and O'Toole.

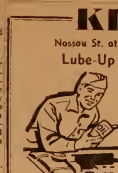

George Reikosky, Levittown Pa., Coca Cola salesman for the Princeton area: The Dodgers — they've got the pitching with Koufax and Drysdale back. The Phillies second; they should do pretty good this year, Detroit in the American League. Wishful thinking, maybe, but I followed them all last year and I think they can do it. The Tigers runner-up.

Tom Clark, Clarksville Road, student Darrow School, Pittsfield, Mass.: I think the Phils will take first in the National League. Each of 'em is almost their's; they should win. The Dodgers win it every other year and this is their off year, and the Giants who, while they never seem to get any worse, never seem to get any better either, so they'll just stay where they are. The American League? I'm a little undecided. Probably the Yankees will be back up there again. Last year they were all fouled up — new manager, injuries — but they can't stay down in the second division all the time. Second place will probably be the Phils. They have a well balanced team.

News Of The CHURCHES

REV. NEWBURY RESIGNS
From All Saints' Chapel,
The Rev. Charles C. Newbury, vicar of All Saints' Chapel of Trinity Parish, has accepted a call to become rector of Christ Church, New Brunswick, one of the parishes in the New Jersey diocese of the Episcopal Church.

Search for a replacement is being undertaken by the Chapel Committee, composed of K. Evan Gray, warden; Gilbert C. Turay, John H. Howard, secretary; Donald A. Pickering, F. Paul Henderson and the Rev. Robert R. Spears Jr., rector of Trinity Parish. All are members of the parish vestry.

The Rev. Mr. Newbury has served Trinity Parish for more than 10 years. He came from Christ Church, Fayetteville, N. Y., and was given responsibility for the Trinity church school and youth program. During the hiatus between the departure of the Rev. Dr. John Butler as rector and the arrival of the Rev. Dr. Spears, he was priest-in-charge. He was then appointed vicar of All Saints' Chapel. The Chapel has quadrupled its membership under his leadership and is currently weighing separation from Trinity Church.

The Rev. Mr. Newbury is president of the Princeton Pastors' Association and has served as chairman of the Theological Education Sunday committee of General Seminary, New York, and as president of the Trenton-Burlington Clerical of the New Jersey diocese. He takes up his new duties on August 1.

COMMUNITY PRAYER SET
On Good Friday, seven Princeton clergymen will take part in a special Good Friday Community service from noon until 3 p.m. this Friday at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The participating ministers, who will each conduct a 25-minute portion on one of the seven last words of Christ on the cross, are the Rev. F. Hugh Liffiton of St. Andrew's, the Rev. Dr. Donald M. Meisel of First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Harold Thomas, Witherspoon Presbyterian Church; Dean Ernest Gordon, Princeton University Chapel; the Rev. Dr. Leon Gibson, Princeton Methodist Church; the Rev. Albert Tysen Jr., Mt. Pleasant A.M.E. Church; and the Rev. Luther Kriefel, Lutheran Church of the Messiah.

The music will be under the direction of James W. Heard. Patricia Wight will be the organist.

PAIN SUNRISE SERVICE
At Battletield Park, An Easter sunrise service will be held this Sunday at the Battletield Park on Mercer Street under the auspices of a youth committee from the Princeton churches. Art Buckland is chairman.

The morning watch will begin at 5:15 p.m. Dean Ernest Gordon of Princeton University Chapel will conduct the worship service at 5:30 a.m. A continental breakfast will be held at the Princeton YMCA at 6:30 for all worshippers.

Also taking part in the sunrise service will be Laurie Bain, Sharon Campbell, Tommy Caldwell, Al Tysen and Mark Dannenhauer. Music will be provided by a brass instrument ensemble. Members of the youth committee include Maria Woodward, music; Penny Wilkinson, ushers; Tommy Caldwell and Laurie Bain, publicity; Nancy Eicher, Sharon Campbell,

USE THE COLOR WHEEL IN PLANNING YOUR CARPET DECORATING.

It tells you instantly what colors go together best, suggest an unlimited number of possibilities. First of all, it shows you the kind of colors — warm or cool. Exactly half of the colors are cool colors. These are quiet and relaxing. The various shades of blues and greens remind you of the refreshing beauty of nature, make us feel cool even on the warmest days. They are especially suitable for bedrooms with lots of windows. These colors surround space and make a small room seem larger.

The other half of the color wheel is made up of warm colors. They are lively, exciting and friendly and are especially suitable for rooms which get little direct sunlight. They can be overpowering if used too profusely in a small space, but can do a great deal to make a large room seem cozier.

The so-called "neutrals" are the colors that go well with both warm and cool colors — the beiges, grays, black and white. There's a lot of difference between a beige with a rosy cast and a beige with a hint of green. So you'll often choose neutrals for the same reasons that you choose the pronounced warm or cool colors — to suggest the mood of a room or achieve a new feeling of space.

We'll talk more about color and carpeting in next week's column.

At E. Bahadurian & Son, with over many years experience in carrying for rugs, we feel qualified to assist and guide you in the selection of rugs and carpets for your home. We have the facilities to handle any carpet job, room-size or wall-to-wall.

Both our Oriental rug sales and service and our domestic carpet sales and service are conducted by appointment only. This ensures that you are seen personally when you come to our showroom.

GENERATIONS can live together happily under one roof if sufficient privacy is built into the plan. This Garrison colonial with its one story contemporary addition could have been better arranged for the comfort of a grandparent or favorite uncle. In the main house which has three bedrooms and 1 1/2 baths, a large entrance hall allows access to living and dining rooms, kitchen and stairs to a laundry and playroom on a lower level. Then, behind the living room, acting both as buffer and connecting link, a small study opens to a wonderful, airy, high-ceilinged bed-sitting room with its own sunbathing bath and private sun deck. Versatile and available. $38,500

HALF ACRE BUILDING SITE: high land with woody vines in an unexpectedly good village location for a small house. Midway between Hopewell and Rocky Hill. $3,200

A BUY: Plain and Simple. We just don't think you can buy more in Princeton Township for less money. Six double bedrooms and three and a half baths. A most attractive living room with doors to a brick-walled terrace, separate dining room, fully equipped kitchen. Huge cellar, attic and garage. Glorious swimming pool and all on two wooded acres in the Johnson Park school district. See it needs some pulling together, but can you beat it for $57,500?

WASHINGTON STREET, ROCKY HILL: A handsome old Colonial with much to offer in the way of charm and livability. Great hall finished by living and dining rooms also opens directly to kitchen, laundry and powder room area. A second stairway provides a direct connection between the four upstairs bedrooms and a second living room and all purpose room. Two modern tile baths, brick terrace fenced yard. Some work to be done. $29,000

A HILLSIDE COUNTRY HOUSE: thoughtfully planned with much more room than meets the eye. On the entry level are foyer, sunny living room with fireplace, dining room, well arranged kitchen, four bedrooms (one is paneled and a natural for a study) and two full baths. A lower level, opening to a grass terrace consists of master bedroom, dressing room and bath plus a spacious second living room. On nearly four acres of wooded land just over a mile from Hopewell. $39,500
